

about us

The European Office of Cyprus (EOC) is a non-profit, non-governmental organisation based in Nicosia with offices in Brussels and Athens.

It was founded in 2007 by 18 organisations representing a wide spectrum of sectors and interests.

Today, EOC represents 28 member organisations from Cyprus, Greece and the Czech Republic.

our office works under 3 main pillars:

Representation, visibility and advocacy for our members to the European Institutions and networks

Tailored information and consultation on EU funding opportunities

Participation in European networks and partnerships

Brussels office

The Brussels Office of EOC contributes to all the main pillars of the organisation through its participation in Brussels-based networks.

Participation in Brussels-based networks:

- › provides access to direct information on funding programmes in the fields of research, innovation and education
- › offers the opportunity to represent our members in these networks and in European Institutions and promote their interests and their priorities in the fields of research, innovation and education
- › assists in the creation of transnational links and partnerships with stakeholders and organisations from other countries
